ANNOUNCEMENTS

ILLUMINATE REAR WHEELS
WITH THEIR OWN HEADLIGHTS
Owners of Dodge Brothers' Motor Cars
Have Convenient Arrangement.

Night touring over elegant concrete roads on warm summer evenings, though admittedly a delight, is not wholly without its little vexations. Puncture a tire, or spring a leak, for instance, and begin your little task of repairing. It is dark and perhaps there is a wind. The flicker of matches and newspapers only irritates your temper a little more—and you accomplish nothing.

Not so with the owner of a Dodge Brothers motor car. His reversible headlights here prove a boon and he repairs his puncture and mounts his tire as quickly as in day time. Merely by turning the headlight around it is possible to direct its full glow on the rear wheel. Then, by training the same light on the open front door, a brilliant illumination is provided for the high luster of the enamel on the door. The reversibility of the head lamps also enables the motorist to illuminate the engine from both sides.

MAJESTIC ROOF GARDEN

William Farnum in the Super-de-luxe Production, American Methods, the Feature Photoplay for Today and Thursday at the Majestic Roof Garden and Auditorium.

American Methods, a special super-de-luxe production, Fox photodrama in which William Farnum plays the stellar role, will be shown at the Majestic Roof Garden on Wednesday and Thursday. William Farnum as William Armstrong is an American of French descent, and is a successful business man. He is left an estate consisting of an iron mine in France, and with his sister sets sail for the French village and takes charge of the business. In the French town live a marquis, a duke and a count. The marquis falls in love with the beautiful daughter of the marquis. She tells him she is betrothed to her cousin. The duke, who is a French nobleman, is interested in American Methods. There will be a prize dance tonight at the Majestic. See prize on display in window at Plaut-Caddens.

BREED THEATRE

Many Big Players in Sowers and Reapers, the Five-part Metro Wonderplay, Feature for Today and Thursday.

A specially selected cast will be seen in Sowers and Reapers, Emmy Wehlen's Metro production to be shown at the Breed theatre today and Thursday. This unusually strong offering was written and directed by George D. Baker. Heading the list, and playing opposite to Miss Wehlen, is George Stuart Christie, a stage favorite, who will be seen for the first time on the screen in this new production. He has played prominent parts in the support of Mrs. Fiske, Julia Marlowe, Bertha Kalich and Henry Miller. Well known to Metro patrons are Frank Currier, Kate Blanche, Peggy Parr, Harry Davenport and Walter Horton who have important parts in Sowers and Reapers. The Burton Holmes travelogue and a Black Diamond comedy will complete the bill.

Coming Monday and Tuesday, Pearl White in The Fatal Ring, the greatest of all serials.

DAVIS THEATRE

A Monster Double Bill is Booked for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Featuring eight well known screen stars, gathered from the ranks of the foremost film concerns, Enlighten Thy Daughter, the seven-reel screen sensation, direct from the Park theatre, New York, comes to the Davis theatre on Thursday for three days.

Enlighten Thy Daughter, written and directed by Ivan Abramson, and just completing a long run in New York, will have its first showing outside the metropolis here when it opens at the Davis.

The story of Enlighten Thy Daughter deals a powerful blow at the neglectful mother, who allows her daughter to grow up, unwarned of the pitfalls that befall a girl, in contrast to the terrible ordeal of the unenlightened girl, is the careful bringing up of her cousin.

The tremendous dramatic moments, where Lillian, the unwarned, is dying, the result of her escapade with Harold Winthrop. Winthrop, in contrast to the bedside and Lillian confesses the name of the author of her misfortune.

No bigger or more gripping scene has been transplanted from life. It has the endorsement of numerous organizations and was the first film play to receive the endorsement of the editor of the official organ of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

NO MORE FOUR CENT FARES
ON WATERBURY TROLLEYS.

Increased Cost of Operation and Low
Revenues the Reason.

Waterbury, Conn., July 10.—President Emory S. Storrs of the Connecticut trolley company announced here today that, starting the 25th, no more four cent fares will be issued on Waterbury trolley lines. The record in the city archives of a calm agreement made between the city and the company in 1887, when the trolley lines were changed from horse to electric power, cannot be for an open buzzy, all in first class condition.

President Storrs gave the increased cost of operation and low revenues as the reason for change. The city will fight it before the public utilities commission. It will probably be claimed that the repeated reference to the contract in city business with the company establishes its existence beyond doubt.

Hartford.—Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, bishop of Connecticut, Mrs. Brewster and their daughter, Miss Eleanor L. Brewster, are at Northeast Harbor, Me., for several weeks' stay.
